

Algorithmics hire Gavin Anderson for project promotion

Algorithmics Inc., a leading provider of enterprise risk solutions, has appointed Gavin Anderson to promote a new product to the hedge fund market.

Directors Candace Carpenter and Keith Brookbank are managing the project.

The 6 month project is to promote the product, Algo Risk Service, across the hedge fund industry. Algo Risk Service is an interactive risk management and portfoliomodelling tool that is fully serviced by Algorithmics' expert risk management team.

Today the $300m Asian multi-strategy fund, Cannizaro Capital Partners, signed up to the Algo Risk Service.
