

GAVIN ANDERSON COMPANY

January 2008

FERGUS WYLIE PROMOTED TO EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN OF GAVIN ANDERSON, EUROPE

Fergus Wylie has been promoted to the new role of Executive Chairman of Gavin Anderson's European operations with the responsibility to develop the existing network as well as to look at expansion into new geographical locations. Gavin Anderson's European network includes offices in London, Paris, Frankfurt, Brussels, Madrid, Barcelona and Lisbon as well as successful affiliate arrangements in Eastern Europe. Fergus joined Gavin Anderson in 2005 to head their London office.

Richard Constant, CEO, Worldwide of Gavin Anderson & Company commented;

“Through our global network of sixteen offices we are driving to improve our existing regional and inter-office collaboration. We are seeing increasing work on a multi-cross border basis not only within Europe but also from our operations throughout Asia, the Middle East and the US. Fergus' role will be to manage these opportunities, direct our people development across Europe and also look at expansion as we continue to increase our geographical reach.”
